Question: ... A. Can you find the ball? B. Can you identify the man carrying the ball?*

Kiss a pig? Regina May holds a pig while Mrs. Hodge kisses it for a fund-raising project sponsored by the annual staff.

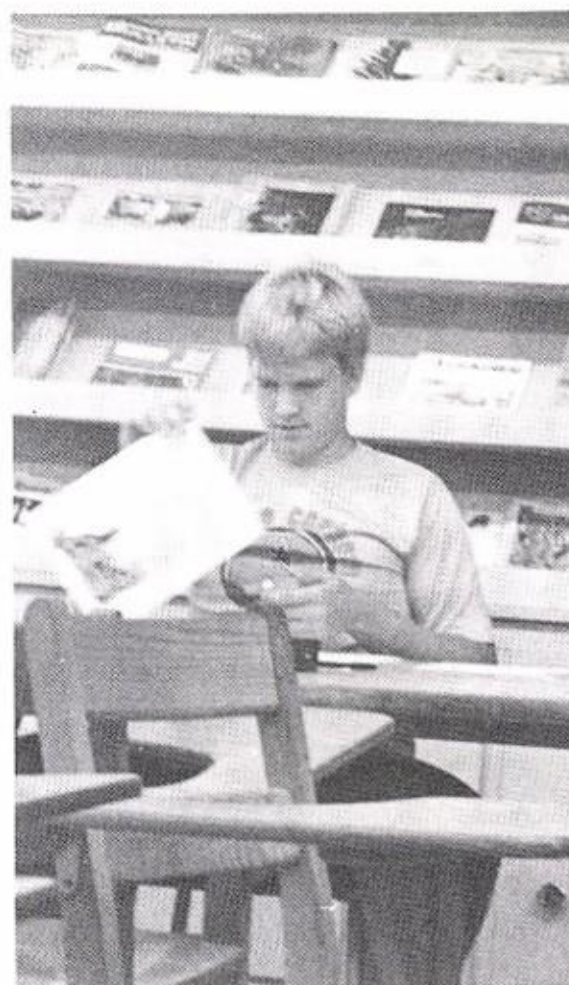

Over the rim, through the net, 2! Cindy McCray scores two points on a fast break against Liberty Hill, while Jana Bruggman (42) is there to lend a hand. The final score was 49-16 Academy.

*Answers: A. under Ewant's # 76
B. Kevin Van Winkle

IT'S ANYBODY'S GAME

Munch! Munch! Munch! Chow down on lunch . . . Ronald Van Winkle poses for the camera as Michael Poncik, Oscar Garcia, and Larry Springer "pig out" on their regular Thursday hamburgers.

Future Farmer of America . . . John McBryde studies his agricultural notes before taking a major quiz.

Spirit, let's hear it! Spirits rise as students set the mood of a pep rally by clapping to the music of the band.

Pick a number, any number . . . Greg Pustka and Clay Wright put 10¢ on the number of their choice in hopes the wheel will stop on it and they will win a prize. The wheel of Fortune is one of the most popular booths at the annual Halloween Carnival. The wheel is run by Mr. and Mrs. Monk.

I got-cha . . . Kindergarteners release excess energy while playing during their break.

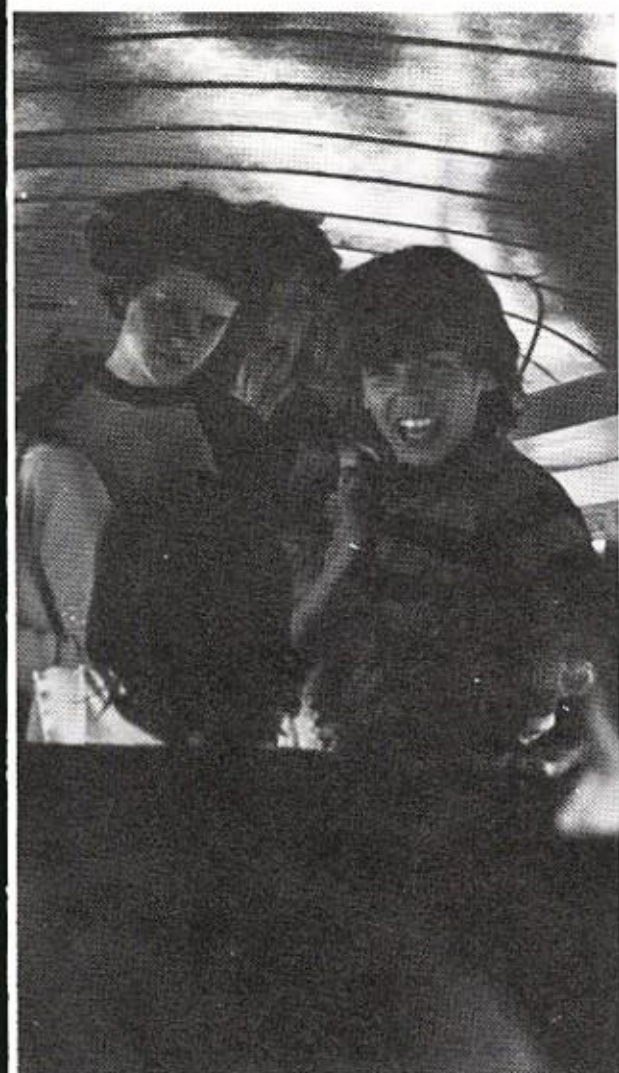

"And the creases in your trousers, dear" Annette Dosekocil, playing the mother, practices her lines and movements for one act play competition.

THE OPENING BID

"The Bees are not out of it yet!" Coach Gommert tries to raise enthusiasm with his pep talk to the football boys and crowd.

Going home . . . Sue Bulls, Bobby Hafley, and Debra Tyler fight for a seat on the bus after a long day at school.

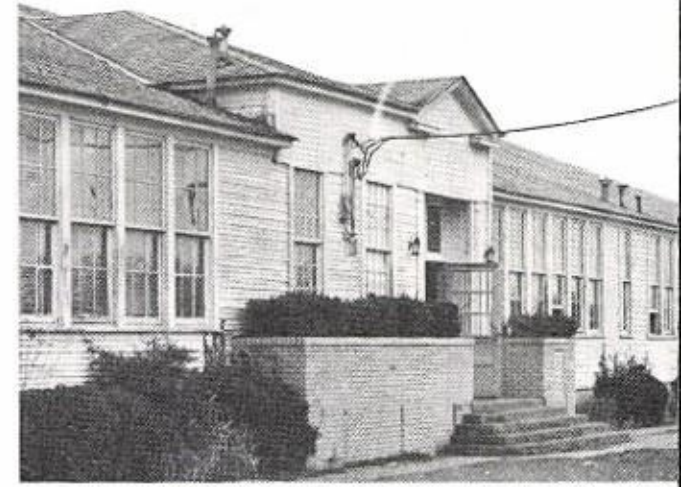

Felice Navidad . . . Spanish club member, Roy Craft, holds the piñata while John Van Winkle and 3rd graders watch Lorenn Bird attempt to break it open.

A NEW DEAL

The old looms over the new . . . In the windows of the new 19,000 sq. foot elementary building one can see a reflection of the old elementary school. Thus ends 40 years of service from the old frame structure that not only housed the elementary, but at times the Jr. high, until 1973 when the Jr. high annex was completed. For grades K-6 the new elementary means better facilities and much needed classroom space.

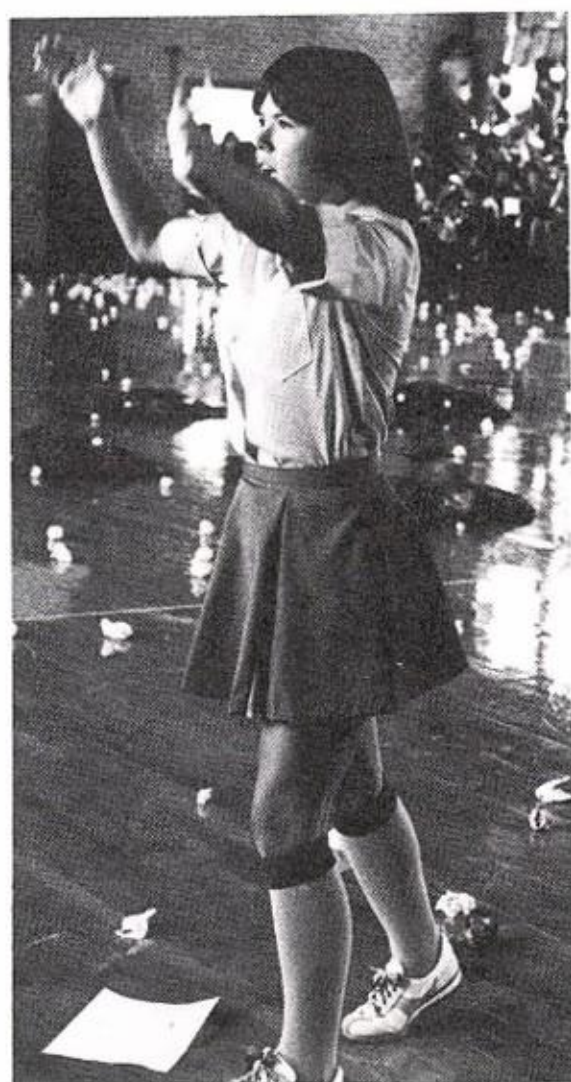

Boy, this is heavy . . . Keith White and other eager students help move into the new elementary school.

Boy, do they have talent! ... Academy teachers Grady Barganier and Carl Cooper sound out their musical talent at the coronation.

Say, how about a little yell!?? Robin Presley demonstrates that being a cheerleader isn't all glamour. It takes hard work to get everyone to yell during a pep rally.

Rock around the clock . . . Drill team, twirlers, and band get the pep rally off to an enthusiastic start as they perform their halftime entertainment.

Get into the music . . . Everyone really gets involved when the TJC Pop Ensemble played such tunes as "Jane" and "The Rose".

Charge!!! The crowd of faithful Bee backers urges the team on to victory with their enthusiasm at a pep rally.

In the shadow . . . Melissa Vasicek, cheerleader is silhouetted from the light of the bonfire which was set afire the last game this year due to heavy rains before the Homecoming match.

Tunes of honor . . . After being crowned band sweetheart by director Carl Cooper, Kathy Summers receives a floral bouquet by band beau Pat Kubacak during half-time of Homecoming '79.

A GOLDEN HOMECOMING

Excitement, anxiety, suspense ... fill the air as the Bees prepare to match wits with the Bartlett Bulldogs during Homecoming '79. Although the Bees worked hard, they were defeated 26-7.

A golden ending ... The drill team ends their routine to "I Saw the Light" with a gold flourish.

Macho, Macho Man ... Marching to the strains of "Macho Man" and "YMCA" the band and drill team dazzle the crowd with their unique halftime performance.

WORKING TO THE TOP . . .

Block shot and ready for rebound . . . Jana Bruggman attempts to block a shot while teammates Holly Hunt, Robin Presley, and Annette Underwood wait for the rebound.

You'd better look alive as Robin Presley searches for a teammate to throw the ball to in hopes of two points.

The varsity basketball team had a lot of work and rebuilding to do before their season began to roll. Overall they ended up with a 17-9 season record which awarded them second place in district.

Ten ways to win . . . Varsity team members are: L. Lisenbe, G. Silvers, P. Silvers, R. Presley, A. Underwood, H. Hunt, J. Bruggman, C. McCray, R. Hunka, Coach D. McCray.

A high hand . . . Rita Martinez gets up a high hand during the Academy J.V. vs. Florence varsity game, which was held during the annual Academy Tournament.

Up for two . . . Florence Buffalos' #50 goes up for two but not without the resistance of Cindy Martin and Linda Heller. Even though the J.V. fought hard, they were downed by the Florence Varsity 48-25.

Second Hand . . . Underclassmen take the responsibility of gaining experience on the basketball court under the supervision of Coach Danny McCray. They had a 6-6 season. J.V. basketball team members are: Coach D. McCray, T. Bauerschlag, B. Braeutigam, M. Emerson, T. Norman, N. Lynn, K. Baker, C. Martin, L. Heller, R. Martinez, and D. Olson.

Faster than a speeding bullet . . . Sprinter Jana Bruggman struggles for a top position in the 200 meter dash in the Bruceville-Eddy Relays, but was only able to recover third.

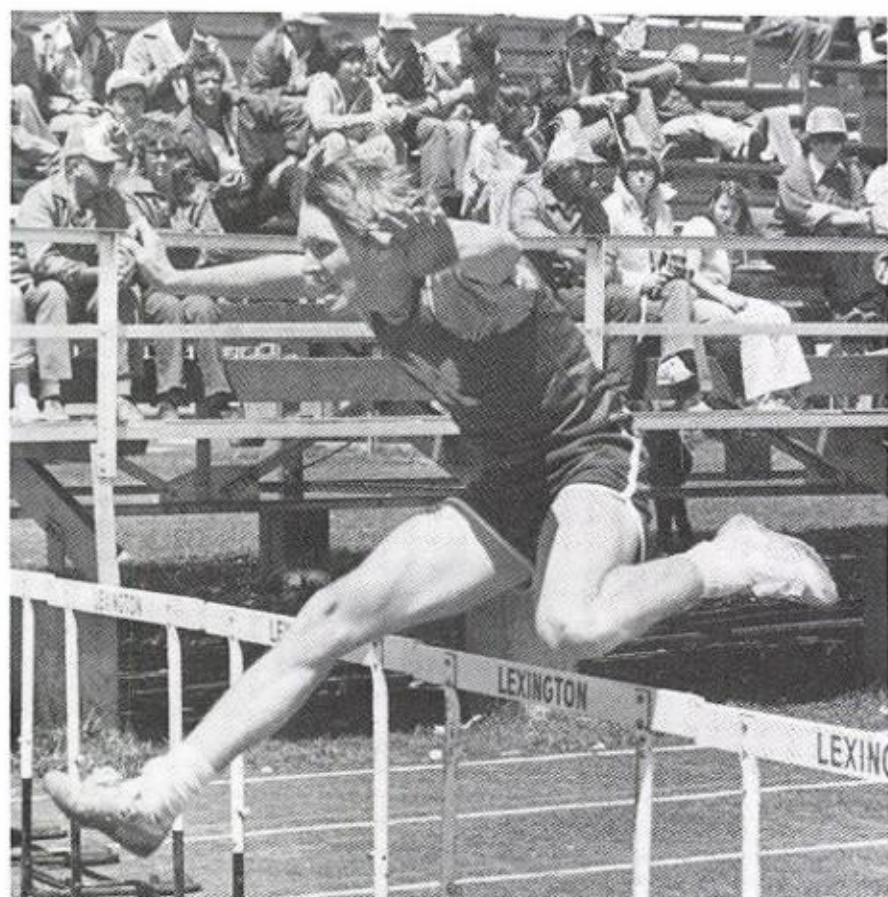

Able to leap tall buildings in a single bound . . . Hurdler Annette Underwood shows her winning form as she takes first in the Bruceville-Eddy Relays at Robinson.

Two down, one to go . . . Mark Freedle takes a long stretch in an attempt to strike out the batter from Liberty Hill. His pitching helped to win the game.

Take the long way home . . . Kenny Ralston heads for home to cinch the win against Troy and the district championship. The Bees beat the Trojans 8-0.

Close encounters . . . During the Troy game at Academy, Mac Parks dives back for first after he decides second base is not the right choice after all.

Exciting was the word for the 1980 AHS baseball season. The team beat Troy 8-0 to cinch the district title. After defeating Shiner 3-1 for the Bi-district championship, the Bees lost to Evadale in the first round of the regional playoffs. The game was finally decided after five extra innings of play with Evadale taking the win 5-4.

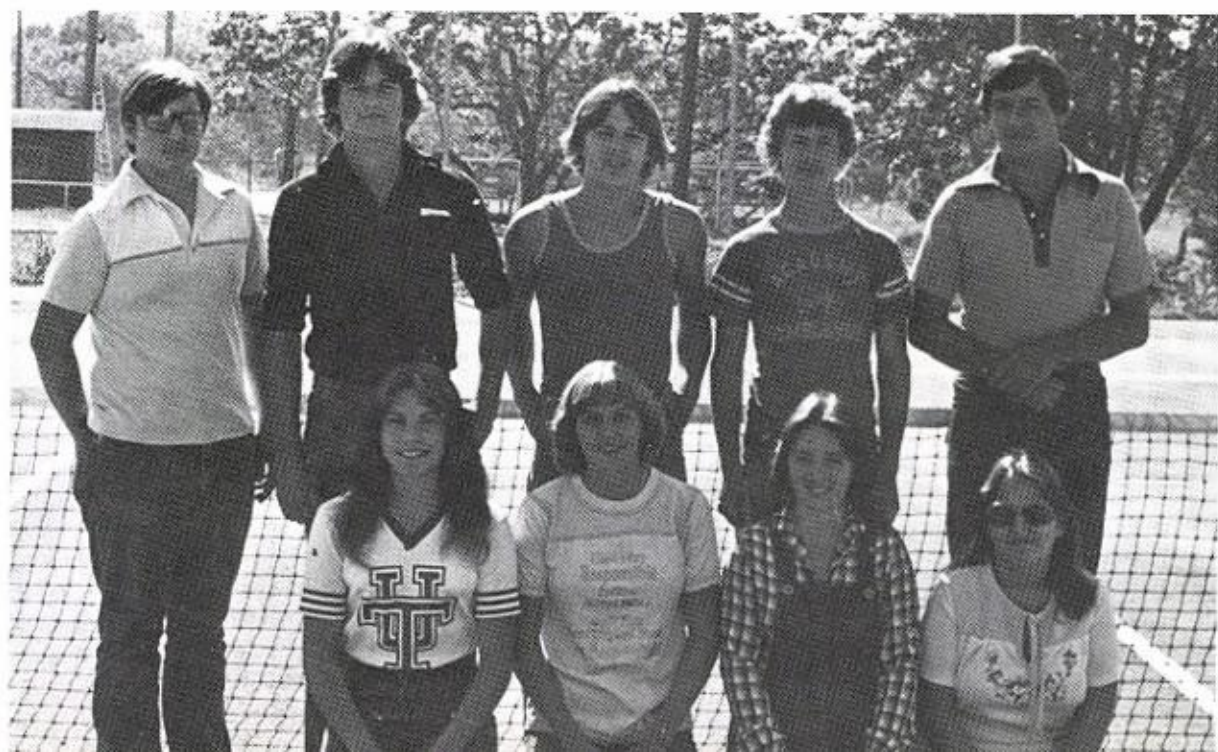

"Anticipation is making me wait" ... In the Academy dugout the team looks on with anticipation and suspense in the game against Evadale.

HOMERUNS ... HOLES-IN-ONE ... ACES

Congratulations ... Mr. Cooper awards Terri Coyne a "most Outstanding Band Member Award" for a job well done. Terri received this award at the 1979-80 Band Banquet sponsored by the Booster Club.

Forward march ... Band Booster Club officers Mrs. C. Owens, pres.; Mrs. M. Coyne, sec.; and Mrs. C. Moore, rep. led the Booster Club in a giant step forward. They raised money this year with football concession stands, bake sales, and the annual candle selling project to support the band.

Garage sales, auctions, and keychain sales ... kept members of the Bumblebee Booster Club busy raising money to support the bees. The 1979-80 officers were: J. Curlee, pres.; P. Tomastik, sec.; and R. Pustka, v. pres.

PARTICIPATE

Leading the way . . . Student council members L. Lisenbe, C. Emerson (rep.), T. Prater (sec.), M. Moon (v-pres.), B. Poncik, G. VanCleave (parl.), and C. Gilliland (pres.) voiced their opinion for the entire student body at AHS.

Working together . . . The theme for this year's PTA is "ParTicipAte" as they work on the annual quilt and scholarship. The 1979-80 officers are: Mrs. M. Newman (1st vice pres.); Mrs. P. Smith (2nd vice pres.); Mrs. C. McCray (pres.); Mrs. J. Bartek (sec.); Mrs. B. Benson (treas.).

"Excuse me for the following announcements, please" . . . Mr. Holland makes his daily announcements over the new intercom system. PTA helped to make this addition possible by raising funds which amounted to $700.00.

KING OF THE CASTLE

"To have and to hold" ... Regina May leans on E. J. Bird's shoulder as she pleads for her husband not to leave her.

Burt Reynolds and Robert Redford? No! It's Darrell Braeutigam playing opposite E. J. Bird in the final stages of the one-act play.

Hollywood's next stars? ... Members of the one-act play are: (top row) E. J. Bird (man), S. Behr (masked player), P. Richards (Musician); (middle row) D. Braeutigam (friend), S. May (business partner), T. Colacino (crew), B. Castle (schoolmaster); (bottom row) Mrs. R. Jones (spon.), A. Daskocil (mother), R. May (wife), Annette Daskocil made all-star cast and E. J. Bird received honorable mention in district competition.

ACES AT A.H.S.

Jackpot Winners ... Elected to be Mr. and Miss A.H.S. were Melanie Bruggman and George Tomastik. They were chosen because of their active roles and great personalities at A.H.S. They have also participated in many activities throughout their high school years.

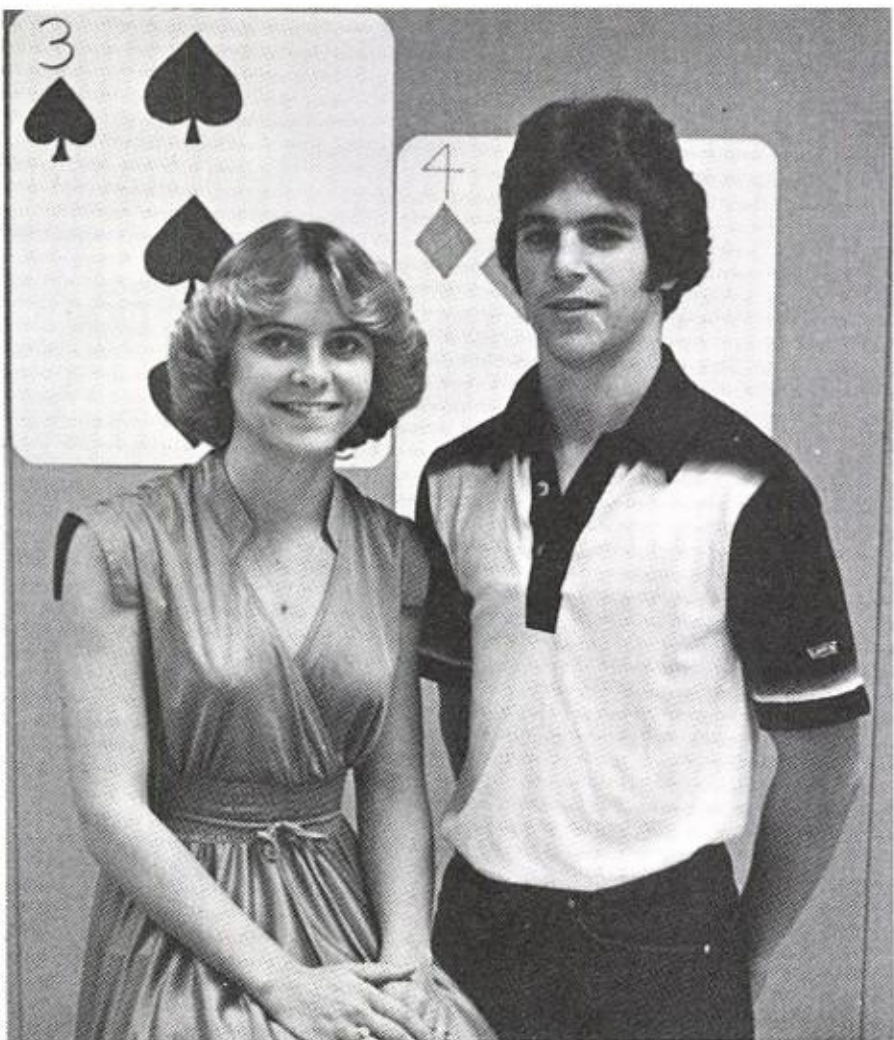

A Model Couple ... Kristy Baker and Jimmy Ralston were chosen Most Ideal because of their ability to get along with everyone and their fun personalities.

Decked out ... Barbara Carter and Paul Richards were elected Best Dressed as a result of wearing their finest duds!

activities

A Good Hand . . . It's the looks that got Melanie Bruggman and Mark Freedle elected Most Attractive.

Jokers Wild . . . And I do mean wild . . . The halls of AHS will long remember the craziness of the Wittiest people in school. The two in the middle of all the fun are Milissa Vasicek and Stanley May.

Reliable, Responsible, Trustworthy . . . Two very responsible seniors that worked their way to be most dependable are Karen Underwood and Mark McCray. They are depended on for many things in their class and in school.

Flipped over sports . . . Most Sportsmanlike was awarded to Holly Hunt and George Tomastik for their athletic ability in all of the sports in which they participated during high school.

THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE

Academic subjects are important to Cheri Emerson, Ricky Ramthun, and Mike Moon as they struggle through Algebra II homework.

Teamwork . . . The Annual Staff was proud to have four of its members, Holly Hunt, Roxie Hunka, Karen Schneider, and Mark McCray honored by Who's Who.

Confucius says . . . Wise sayings can be heard for those chosen for Who's Who among American High School Students. Chosen were (top row) W. Lisenbe, R. Barganier, P. Richards, J. Ralston, M. McCray, and R. Ramthun; (bottom row) E.J. Bird, K. Schneider, R. Hunka, H. Hunt, C. Emerson, and M. Moon.

Everyone's friend . . . Because of their wit, charm, and likeable personalities D'Ann Schneider and Scott Behr (Srs.), Cheri Emerson and Joey Koenig (Jrs.), Jana Bruggman and David Tomastik (Sophs.), and Terri Coyne and Scott Sodek (Fresh.) are chosen Class Favorites.

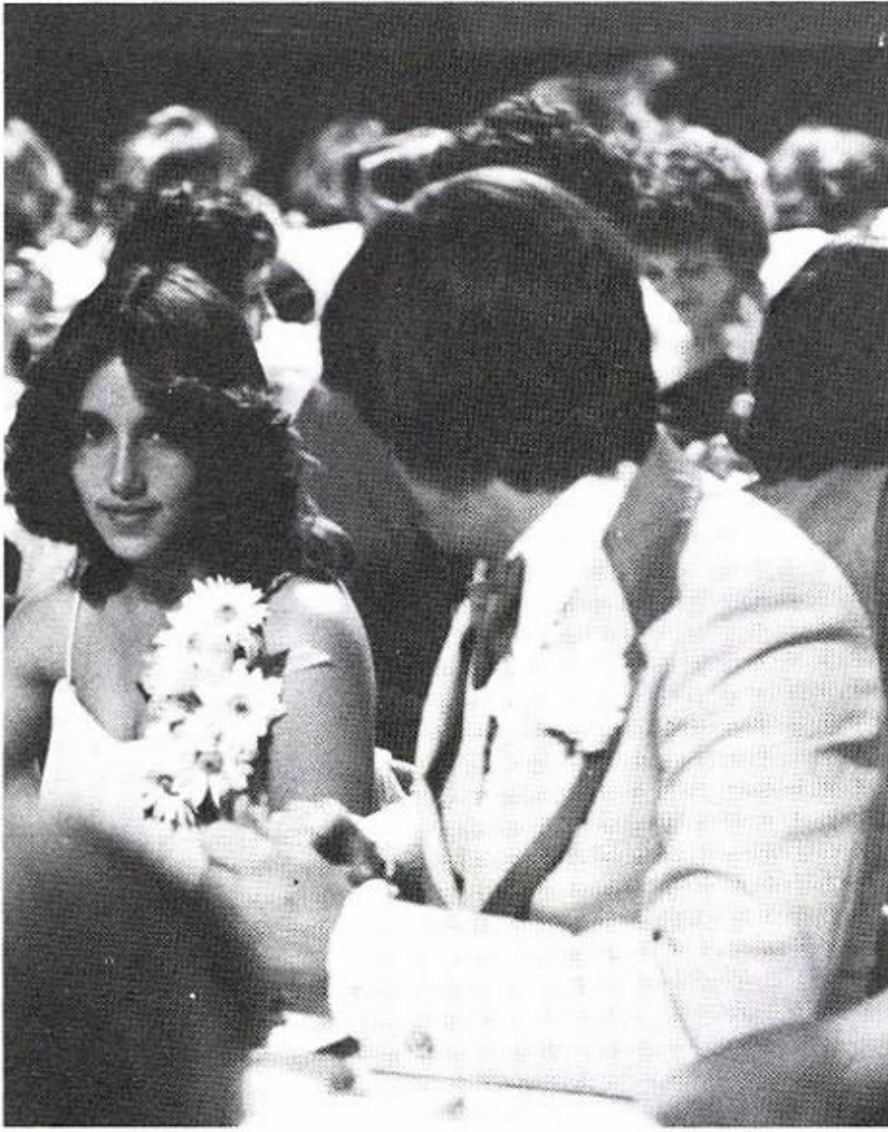

Their Majesties . . . King and Queen candidates this year at Academy are: P. Baker and C. Bartee (7th), R. Hejl and J. White (8th), B. Williams and K. Baker (9th), G. Ramthun and K. Ohnheiser (10th), P. Kubacak and R. Robinson (11th). The seventh grade and junior class crowned their candidates by raising the most money.

What a pair! Seniors show wisdom by choosing Chris Gilliland and Teresa Prater as their king and queen representatives.

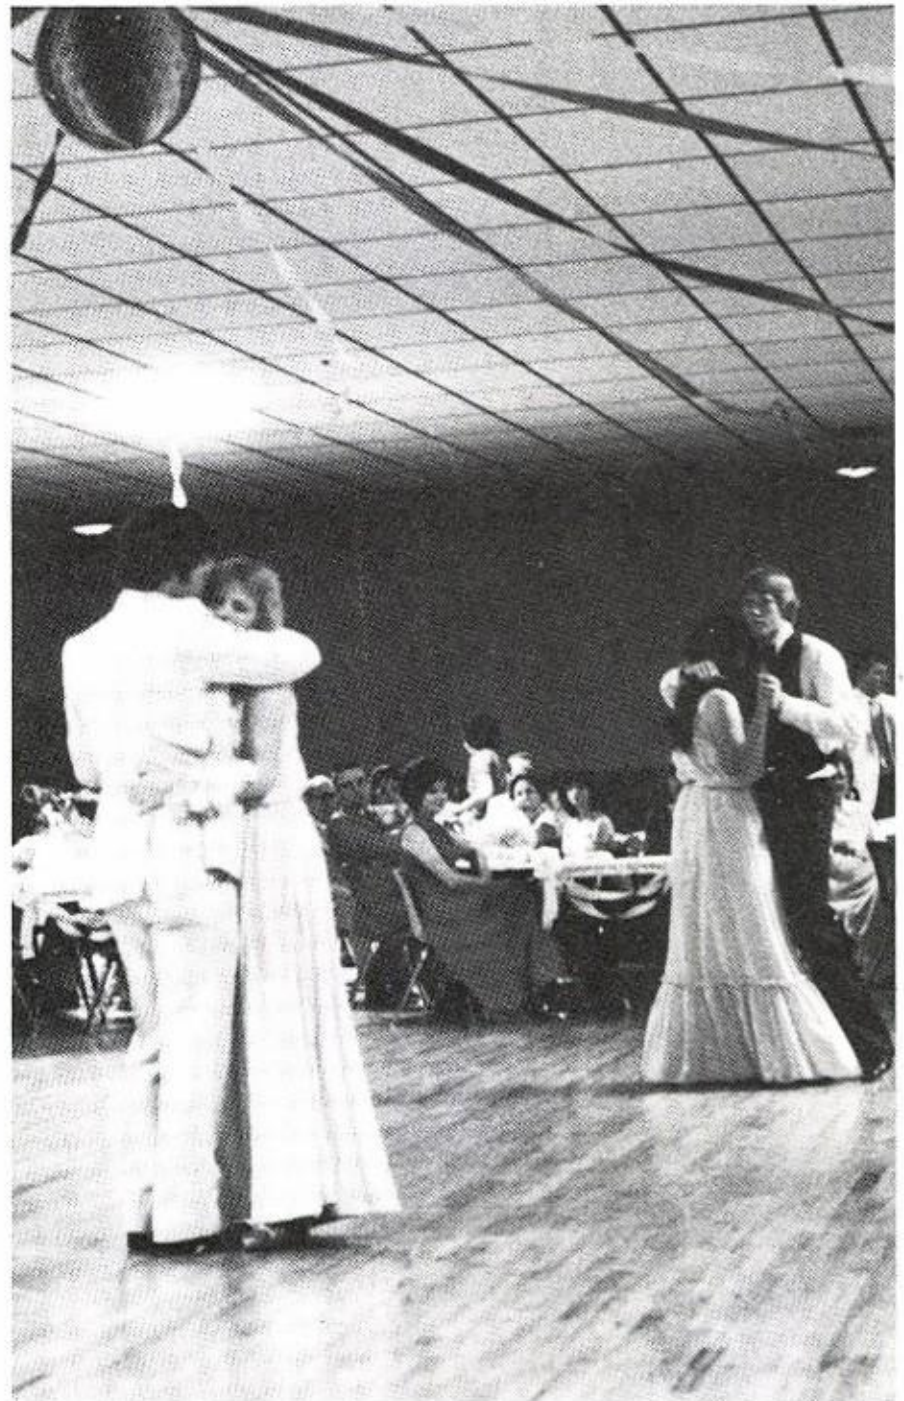

Love at First Bite . . . Kristy Baker and George Tomastik sit patiently waiting for the arrival of the food.

Eat, Drink, and be Merry . . . Annette Underwood and Shawn Presley enjoy the meal of steak, baked potatoes, hot rolls, green beans, salad, and tea that was prepared by Mr. Walter Tomlin, the lunchroom ladies, and Junior parents.

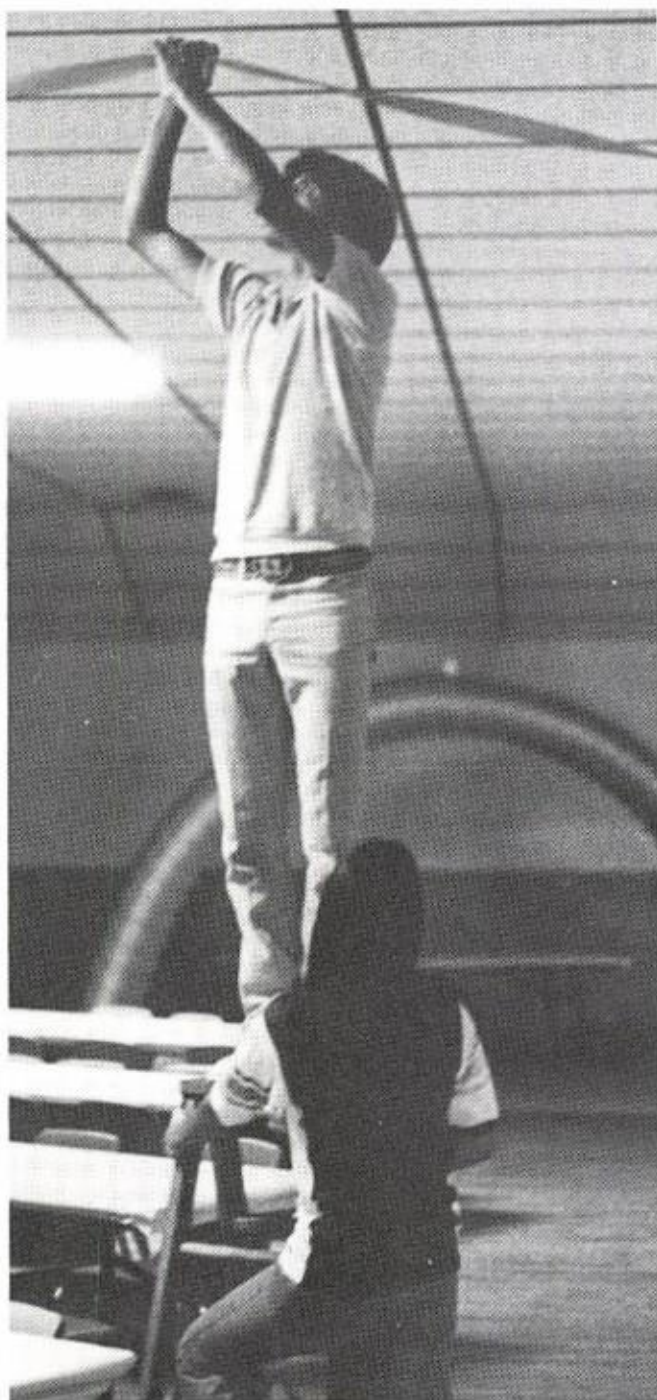

Dance the night away . . . Calvin Whatley, Sandra Kasa, Cindy McCray, and Joey Koenig are "slow dancing, swaying to the music" to tunes provided by the Roadrunners at the Jr.-Sr. Prom.

DREAM ON

Pass the salt and pepper, please . . . Guests at the Junior-Senior Banquet eat before music and dance.

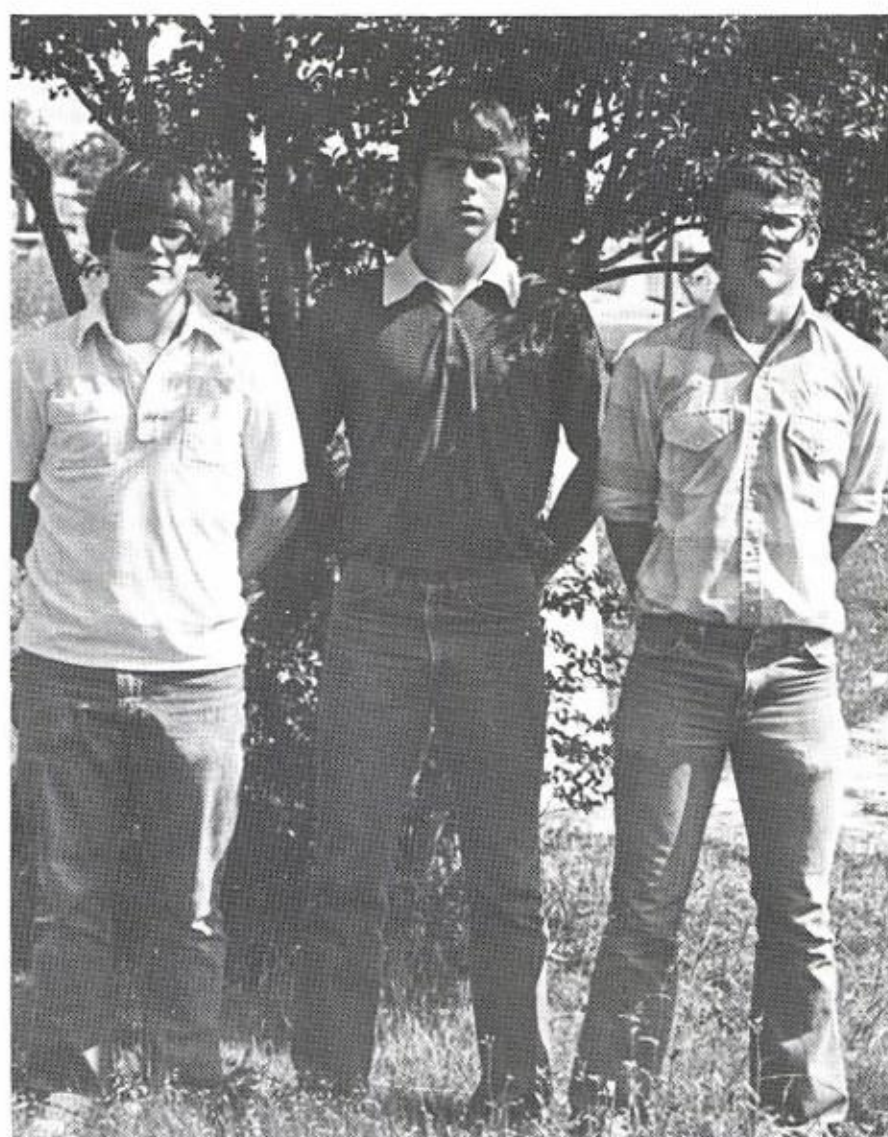

A touch of class? Taking a breather from the activities at the banquet are seniors Chris Gilliland, Paul Richards, E.J. Bird and Mark Freedle.

Steady now . . . Getting the SPJST hall ready for the banquet are juniors Shawn Presley and Cheri Emerson. The theme of "Dream On" was illustrated by a rainbow, flowers, and pots of gold.

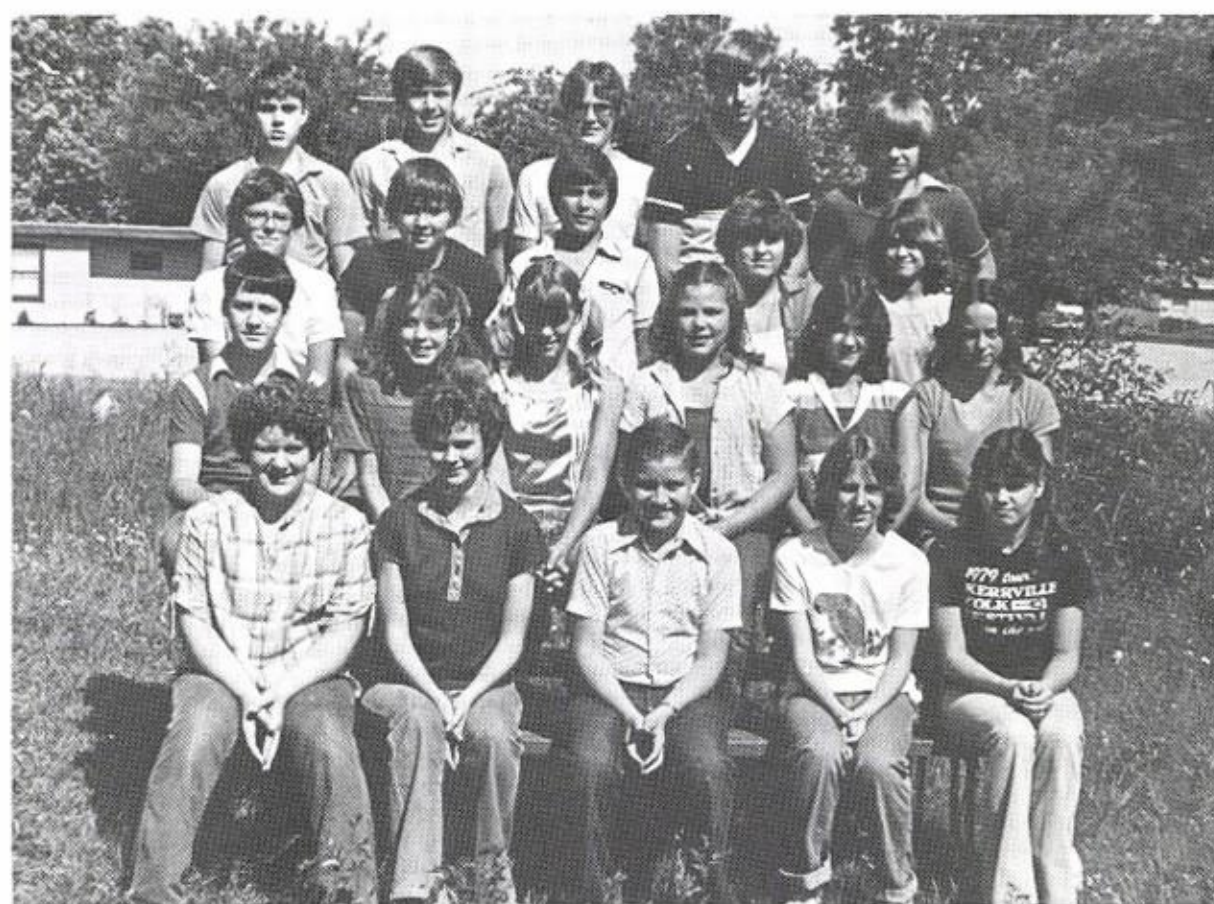

Laying 'em down ... Due to their outstanding achievements in the district track meet, regional qualifiers are (top row) H. Hunt, R. Presley, J. Bruggman, K. Ohnheiser; (bottom row) J. Stone, L. Lisenbe, K. Underwood, A. Underwood, T. Prater, and J. Koenig.

Thinking is serious business ... R. Barganier, E.J. Bird, and R. Ramthun traveled to Victoria for regional competition in U.I.L. science, slide rule, and number sense events.

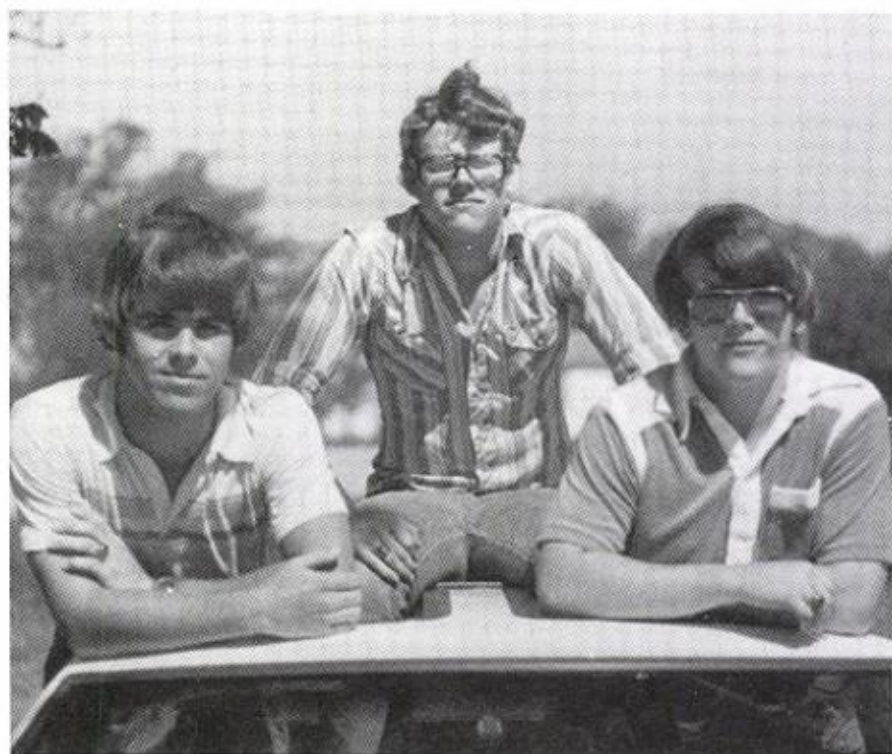

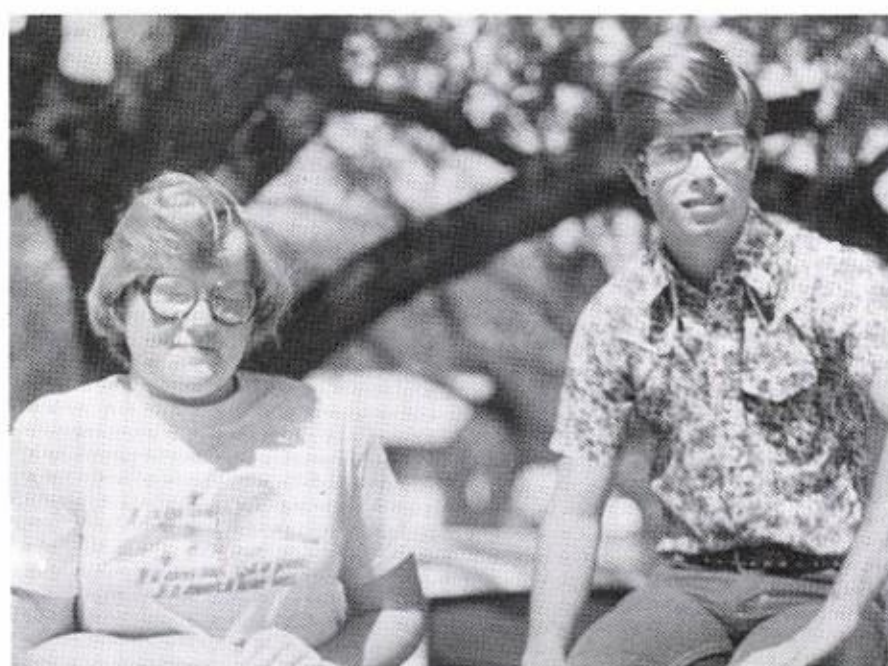

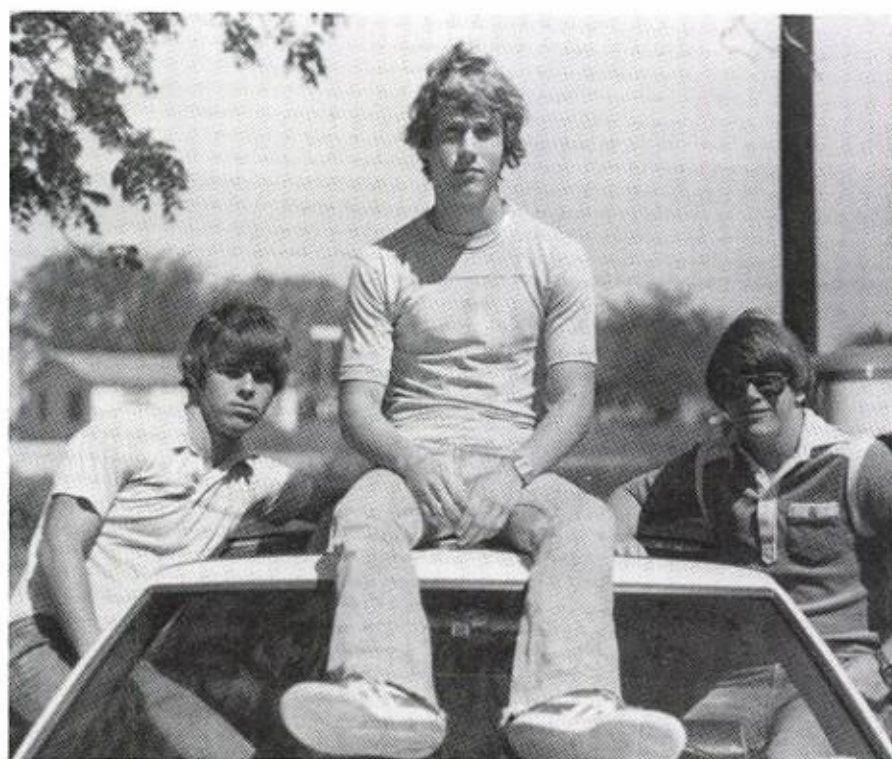

Top notch ... K. Howell, B. Williams, A. Mann, and T. Coyne made All Region Band for the South Zone as a result of their hard work.

HOME OF THE WINNERS . . .

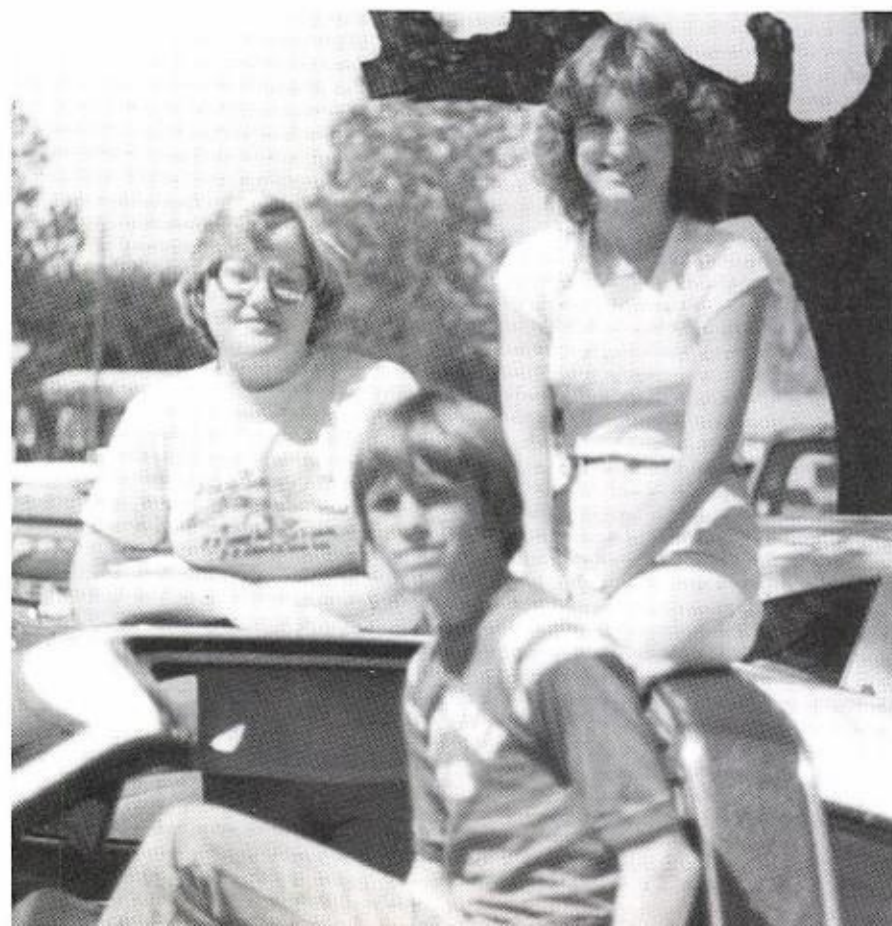

58024 + (174)² = . . . Can you work this in your head? Number sense participants E. J. Bird (1st place), B. Bennett (5th place), and R. Baganier (3rd place) worked such problems to build speed and accuracy for the meet. E.J. also placed second in slide rule and attended the regional meet along with Ricky.

2080 words! . . . Being able to spell over 2000 words was the goal of M. Krumnow and D. Harrison as U.I.L. spelling contestants. Melinda placed sixth at the meet held in Rogers.

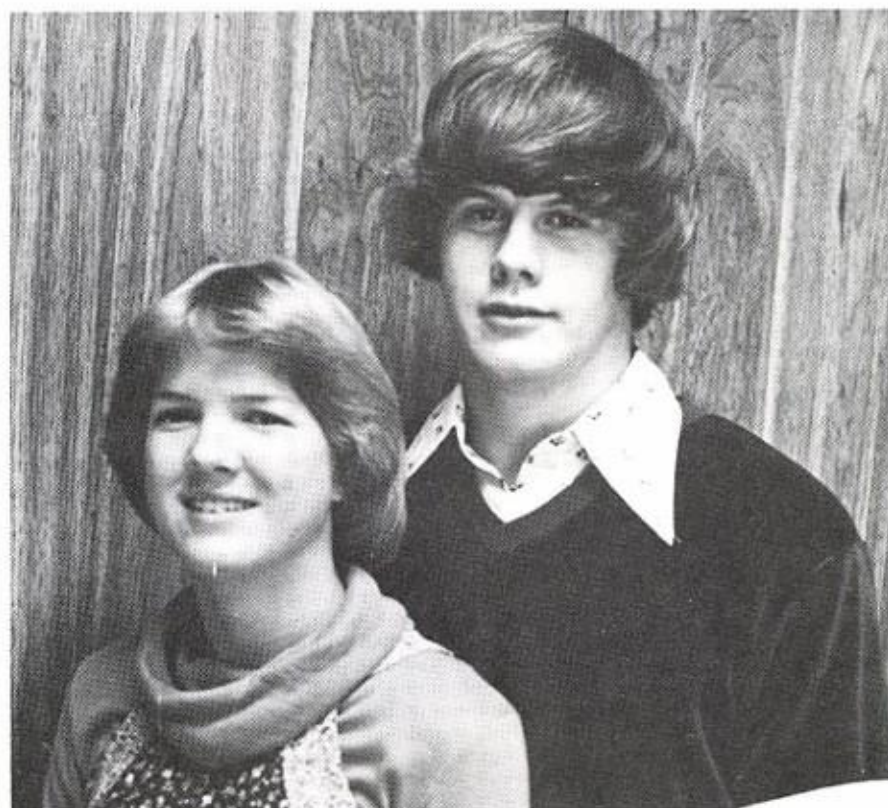

Beakers, bunsen burners and microscopes . . . Questions about chemistry, biology and physics were part of the science test given to participants E.J. Bird, R. Ramthun (2nd place), and R. Baganier (1st place). R. Baganier and R. Ramthun went to regional at Victoria.

Justice and injustice . . . Ready Writers M. Vasicek, K. Owens, and M. Krumnow use their literary skills in writing on various topics at the U.I.L. meet.

A Blazing Beauty . . . Kathleen Ohnheiser represented A.H.S. as Miss Flame. She competed in the Bell County Miss Flame Contest and was first runner-up.

A favorite pair . . . Seniors Karen Underwood and George Tomastik were chosen by the F.F.A. and F.H.A. as sweetheart and beau.

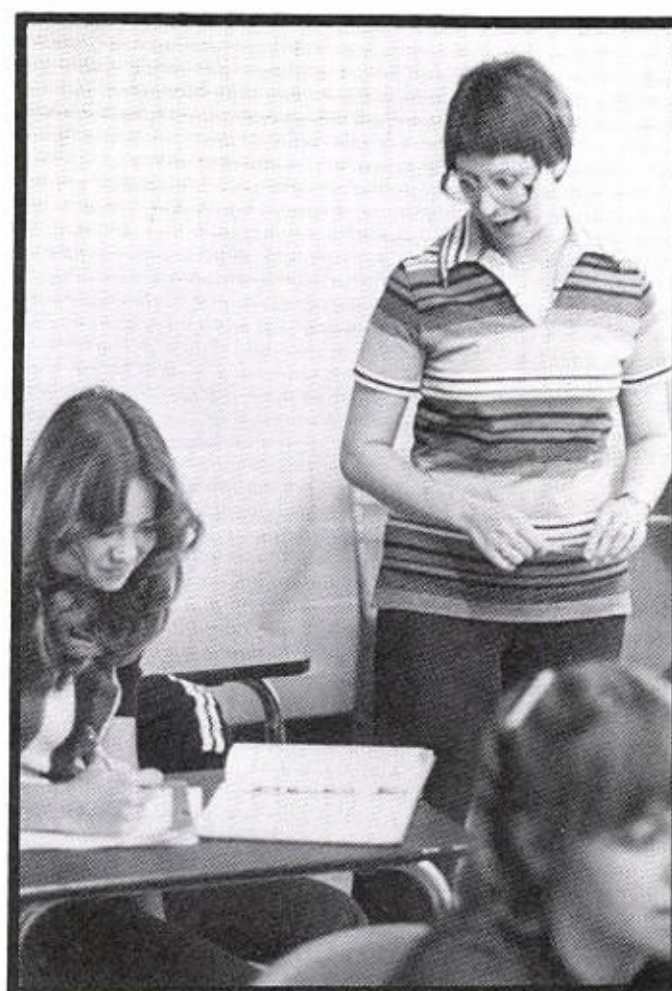

Beauties are bountiful . . . Scott Behr, Pep Squad Beau, is surrounded by a harem of some of the prettiest girls at A.H.S. They are Football Sweetheart Kristy Baker (Fresh.), with her court: Karen Underwood (Sr.), Cheri Emerson (Jr.), and Pattie Silvers (Soph.) and Homecoming Queen Melanie Bruggman (Sr.), with her court: Teresa Bauerschlag (Soph.), Lisa Lisenbe (Fresh.) and Ginger Silvers (Jr.).

Making the rules of the game . . . Making decisions for school is not an easy task, but the school board members work hard to look after the best interests of the students. School board members are: B. Heller (v-pres.), W. Tomlin, G. Walker, G. Comptom (elem. prin.), B. Entzinger (pres.), B. Mahler, B. Underwood (sec.), E. Lisenbe, J. Holland (h.s. prin.), and seated is R. Hunt (supt.).

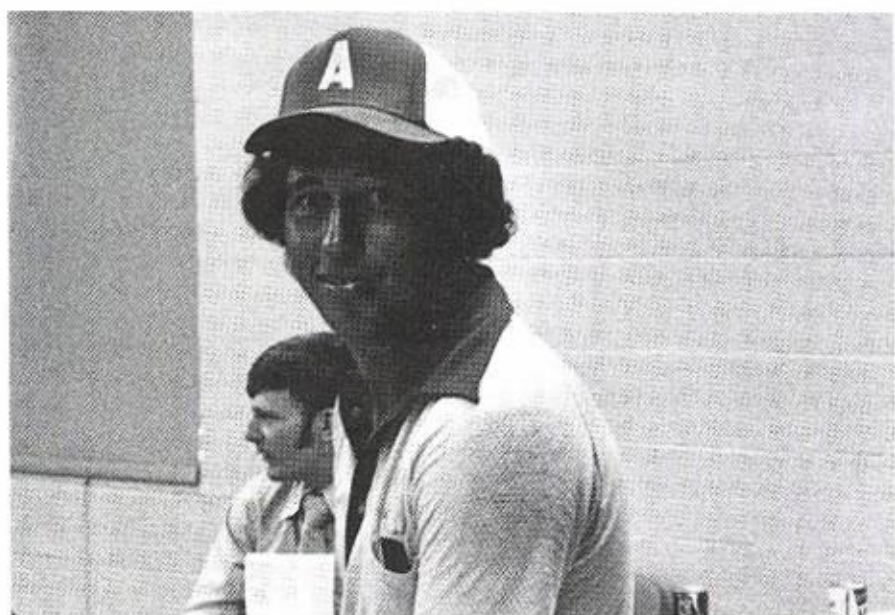

Long distance is the next best thing to being there. As superintendent at Academy for the past ten years, Mr. Hunt has initiated the construction of many needed improvements on the campus. Next year he will reside in Kountze as superintendent of a larger school.

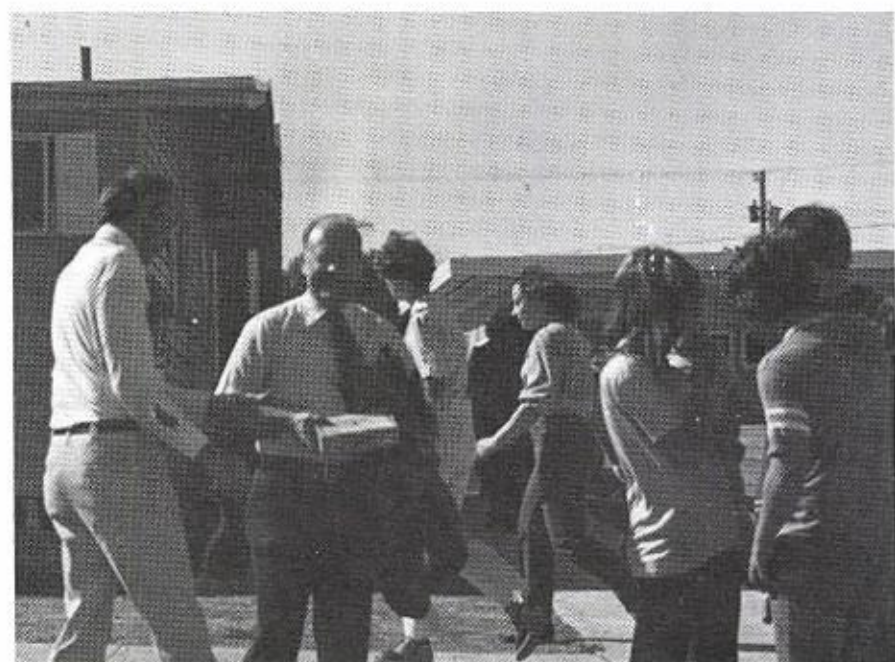

Principally speaking . . . From kindergarten round-up to senior trip Mr. Jim Holland (h.s. prin.) and Mr. Garmen Comptom (elem. prin.) participate in all activities concerning the students at Academy.

IT'S NOT ALL FUN AND GAMES

It's that time again!

Get your tickets here! Superintendent Robert Hunt and Principal Jim Holland try to sell football tickets at a pep rally.

Come and get it! The lunchroom ladies, Mrs. N. Harmon, Mrs. E. Gentry, Mrs. B. Ellison, and Mrs. B. Carter bake everything from homemade rolls to tacos for the elementary and high school students.

Clean, clean, and clean some more.

Taking time out from the endless routine of keeping everything in shape around the school buildings are Shorty Carter and Mrs. Ovlee Glaser.

Thank you one and all! Valedictorian E.J. Bird gives thanks to everyone who made it possible for him and his classmates to become graduates.

Friends, parents, faculty, and fellow classmates . . . Salutatorian Paul Richards gives the welcome at the commencement exercises of the first graduating class of the decade.

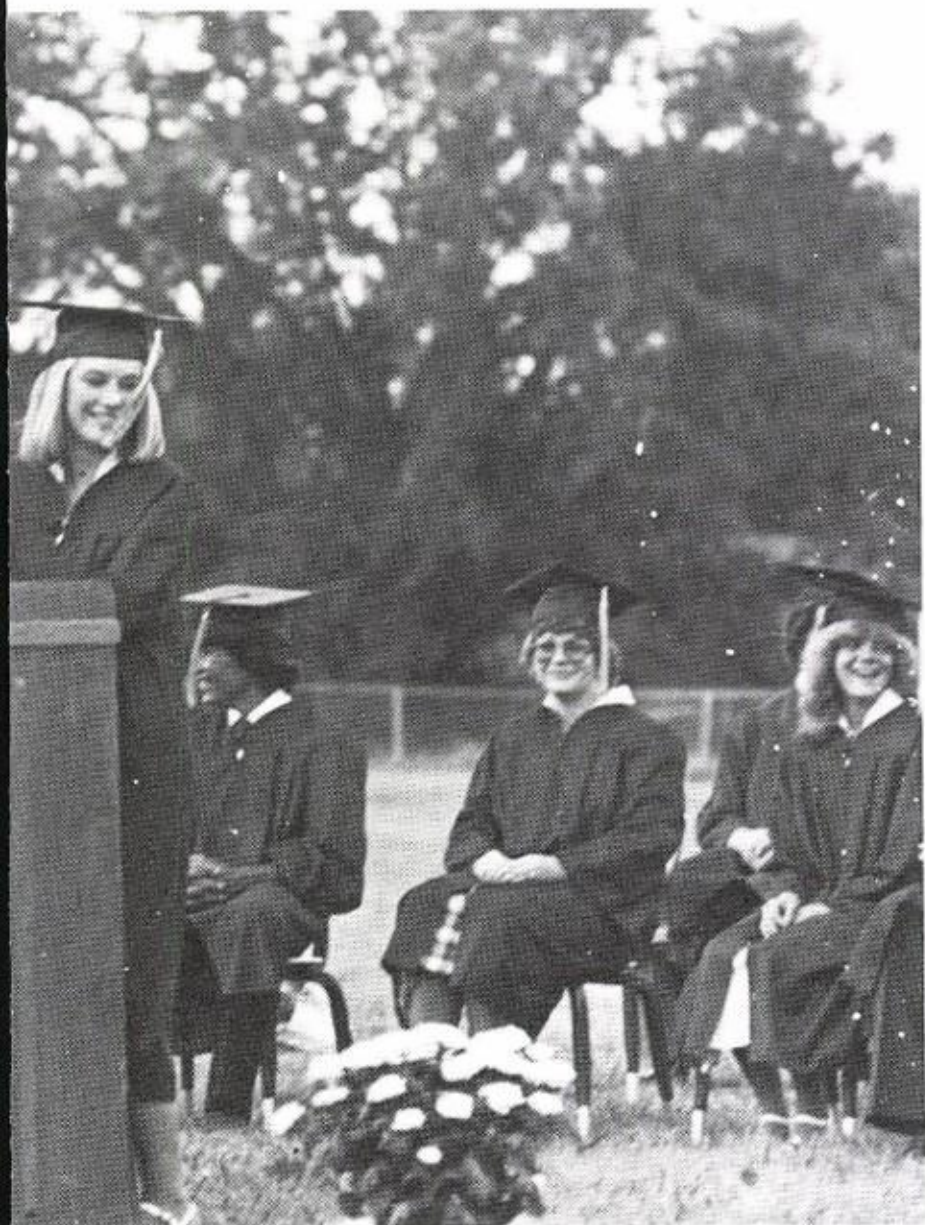

On the way to becoming a freebird. Melanie Bruggman receives her diploma from Mr. G.C. Walker, School Board President, as the rest of the graduates anticipate the big moment.

Don't look a gift horse in the mouth . . . Karen Schneider gives the last will and testament to some well-deserving underclassmen from the class of 1980.

ENDING A WINNING YEAR

Graduation marks the beginning of a new decade for the seniors whether it be further education or immediate employment. Special honors were given during commencement exercises for outstanding achievements. The top ranking graduates are: E.J. Bird (97.163, the highest average at Academy during the past 26 years.), Paul Richards (92.804), Teresa Prater (92.769), Roxann Hunka (92.440), and Karen Schneider (91.315). Other awards were: American Legion, P. Richards and K. Schneider; Math and Science, E.J. Bird; PTA and English, M. Freedle; Business, M. Bruggman; Social Studies, P. Richards; Homemaking, K. Schneider; Best Athletes, G. Tomastik, R. Hunka, T. Prater, and K. Underwood; Citizenship, M. McCray; Best All-Around, T. Prater and E.J. Bird.

In the dimension of time ... Roxann Hunka brings some light hearted moments into graduation exercises as she gives the class prophecy.

The One and Only . . . Senior class president Paul Richards leads the class in their victory yell. Darrel Braeutigam, Scott Behr, and Stanley May provide moral support. The spirit promoter for the week was to wear decorated T-shirts.

Our future legislators?? Members of the senior class "enthusiastically" participate in Sawyer's government class.

Believe it or not? . . . Promoting spirit was a natural for the seniors of 1980. At the Homecoming pep rally the seniors worked together to decorate a float. They also invited KTEM's Tony and Chucker to make a pep talk. The seniors won the picnic award by receiving the most spirit sticks throughout the football season.

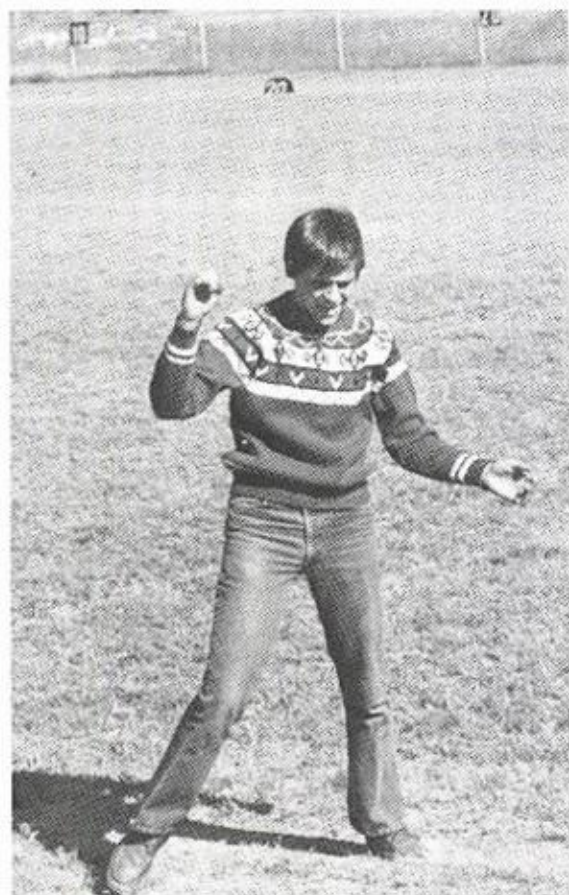

THE END IS NEAR

The first graduating class of the 80's began their senior year enthusiastically competing for the spirit stick and the crowning of the carnival king and queen. They strenuously worked in Little Dribbler's and baseball concession stands and car washes to raise enough money for their badly wanted senior trip to Corpus Christi. They were honored on May 9, 1980 at the Jr.-Sr. Prom and left in the wee hours of the morning bound for the sunny beaches of Corpus.

Entertaining ... Crazy ... Funny ... Seniors pull together last minute talent to sing and lead underclassmen in carols during the school Christmas party.

B-E-E-S ... Senior president Paul Richards leads the school in a "Sting 'em Bees" yell to get the spirit up at an out door pep rally.

Dealing out the deck ... Senior sponsors and class officers lead the seniors through a successful year. The members are: Coach T. George (spon.); Stanley May (sec-trea.); Paul Richards (pres); Mark Freedle (vice-pres); Mrs. R. Jones (spon); and Ms. P. Sawyer (spon).

It takes togetherness . . . This year's juniors were a hard working group under the leadership of class president Cheri Emerson. The key word for the class was "teamwork", for that's what it takes to host the Jr.-Sr. banquet and prom. To make money for the Jr.-Sr. festivities the juniors sponsored the homecoming sock-hop (music provided by the Western Sunrise), manned the concessions for all home basketball games, and sold peppermint candy at Christmas. Earlier in the year, the class showed teamwork in its efforts to collect bingo prizes and sell donuts thus having its king and queen candidates crowned at the carnival.

Follow the lead . . . Mrs. Bird (spon.), Teresa Daugherty (sec.-treas.), Mike Moon (v. pres.), Cheri Emerson (pres.), and Mrs. Hodge (spon.) set the pace toward the juniors having a successful year.

As fast as her legs will take her . . . Ginger Silvers sprints her leg on the 880 yd. relay at the Robinson track meet. The relay placed 2nd.

We want a touchdown! . . . Vincent Kasa runs out for a touchdown pass in an 80-yard drive as Mike Moon and Paul Panepinto help block. Kasa caught the pass for a large gain. The Bees went on to win 21-7 against Florence.

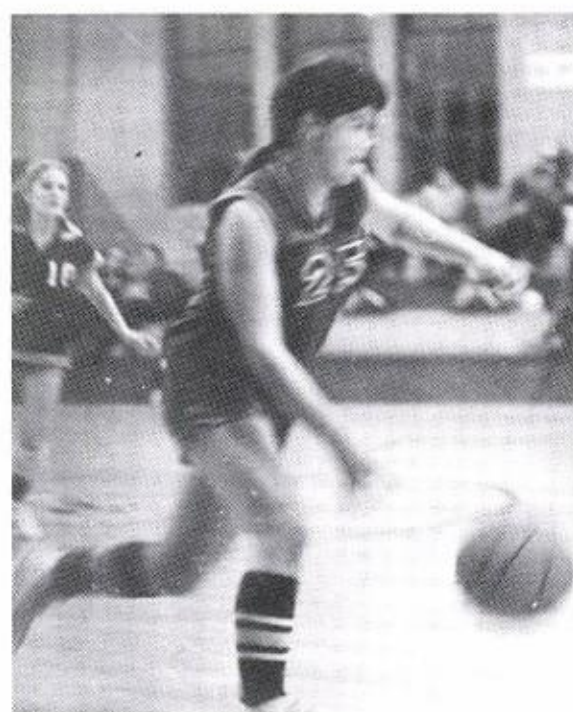

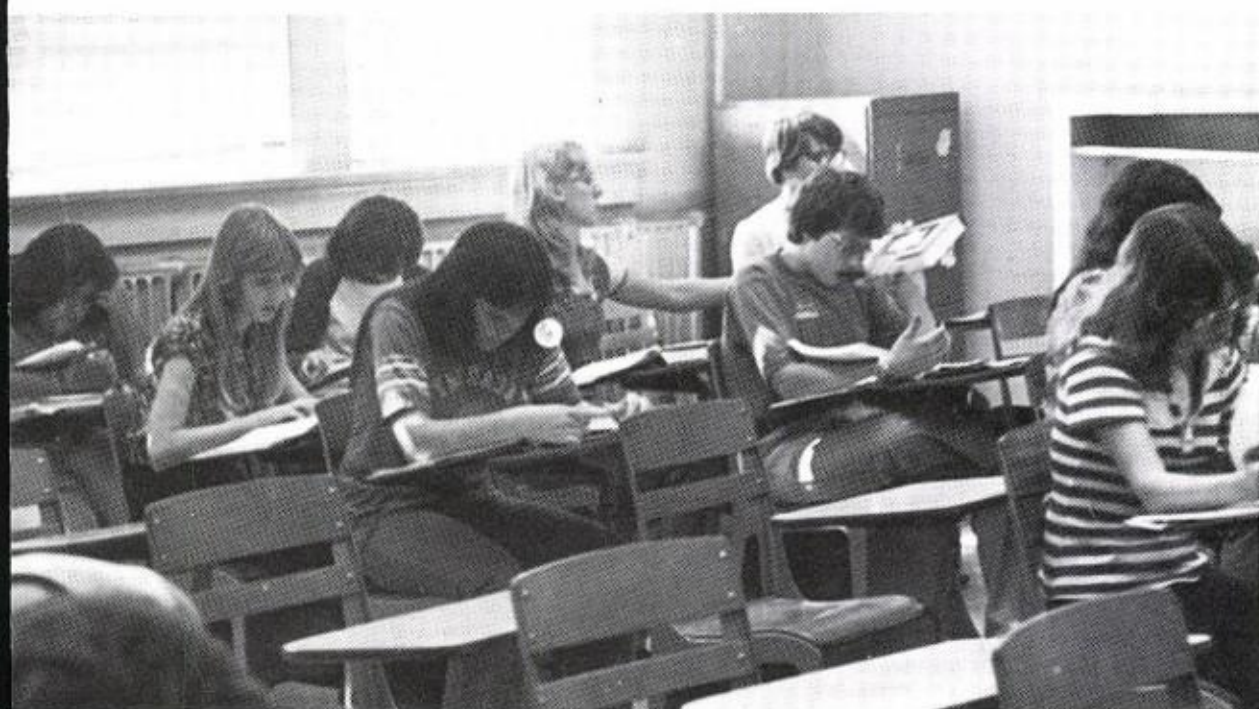

Planning the prom is serious business . . . Juniors listen to their president and sponsor during a class meeting to decide on working in the concession stand during activity period as a fund raising project.

We have deadlines to meet . . . Regina May and Mary Martin work diligently to finish quad-paks during annual staff.

SUPER SOPHS!

Participles, gerunds, and Julius Caesar . . . Sophomores work hard on their grammar and reading skills in fourth period English II class.

It's time for a lay up . . . Cindy McCray dribbles down the court as she plans her strategy for making two points.

Smile, you're on Candid Camera . . . Sandra McAdams, Robin Presley, Pattie Silvers, Tony Colacino, and fellow classmates take time out from their classwork to smile for the photographer.

We've got spirit, yes we do . . . The sophomores join together to show their own class spirit in singing "Cheers" at the pep rally. The sophomores ran a close race with the seniors in the weekly pep rally spirit stick competition.

Get in the spirit . . . Junior High cheerleaders, twirlers and pep squad form a victory line and give a mighty battle cry as the Bees come crashing through.

Teamin' it up . . . Melanie Hunt and Lynn Ohnheiser pair up as twirlers for the Jr. High football season. They performed during half time and at pep rallies giving the crowd excellent entertainment.

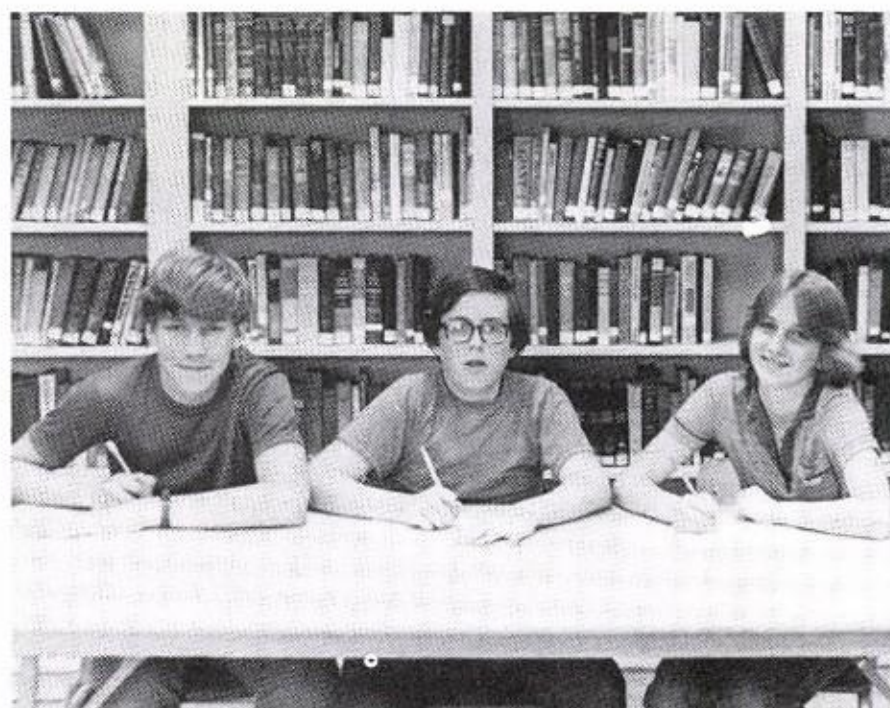

Give a cheer . . . Junior High cheerleaders show their spirit by giving it all they've got at pep rallies and games for the Jr. High and J.V. teams. The 1979-80 Jr. High cheerleaders are: (top) L. Martin, (standing) A. Mann and K. Martin, (sitting) D. Tyler and J. Cook.

Spirited group . . . Jr. High pep squad aid the cheerleaders in helping to promote spirit for the football team. They are: (top row) M. Beimer, I. Strmiska, K. Koenig, C. Bartee, D. Kennon, T. Hobdy, S. McDaniel, (bottom row) L. Strmiska, M. Ashby, P. Smith, G. Scott, T. Braeutigam, and K. Roberts.

WHIZ KIDS

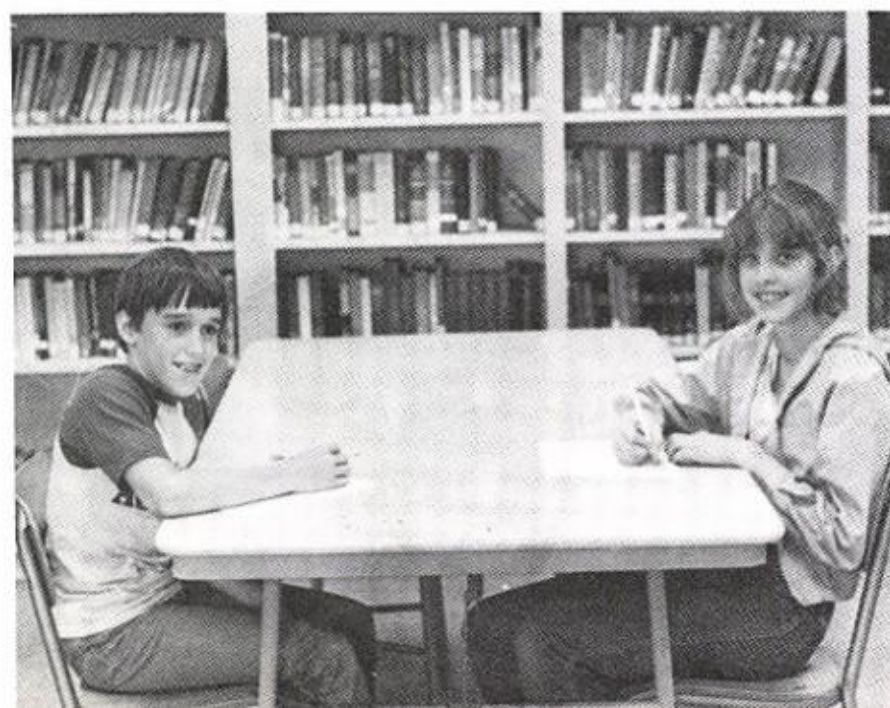

Remember to dot your i's and cross your t's . . . Competitors for Jr. High UIL spelling C. Bartek (3rd place), J. Cook, and P. Moore must know plain writing as well as how to spell many words.

Πr^2 , No! pie are round, cornbread are square . . . UIL number sense contestants R. McDaniels, G. Clark (4th place), and A. Mann (5th place) must remember several such formulas when competing in this event.

"How do I love thee, Let me count the ways" . . . Poetry participants M. Ashby, A. Mann, and C. Ohnheiser competed in the UIL District meet at Troy.

Some say it's easy, some say it's not . . . Ready writers P. Baker and J. Cook wrote on one of many subjects in the Jr. High UIL meet. Jennifer placed 2nd in the competition.

DID YOU WIN THE POT?

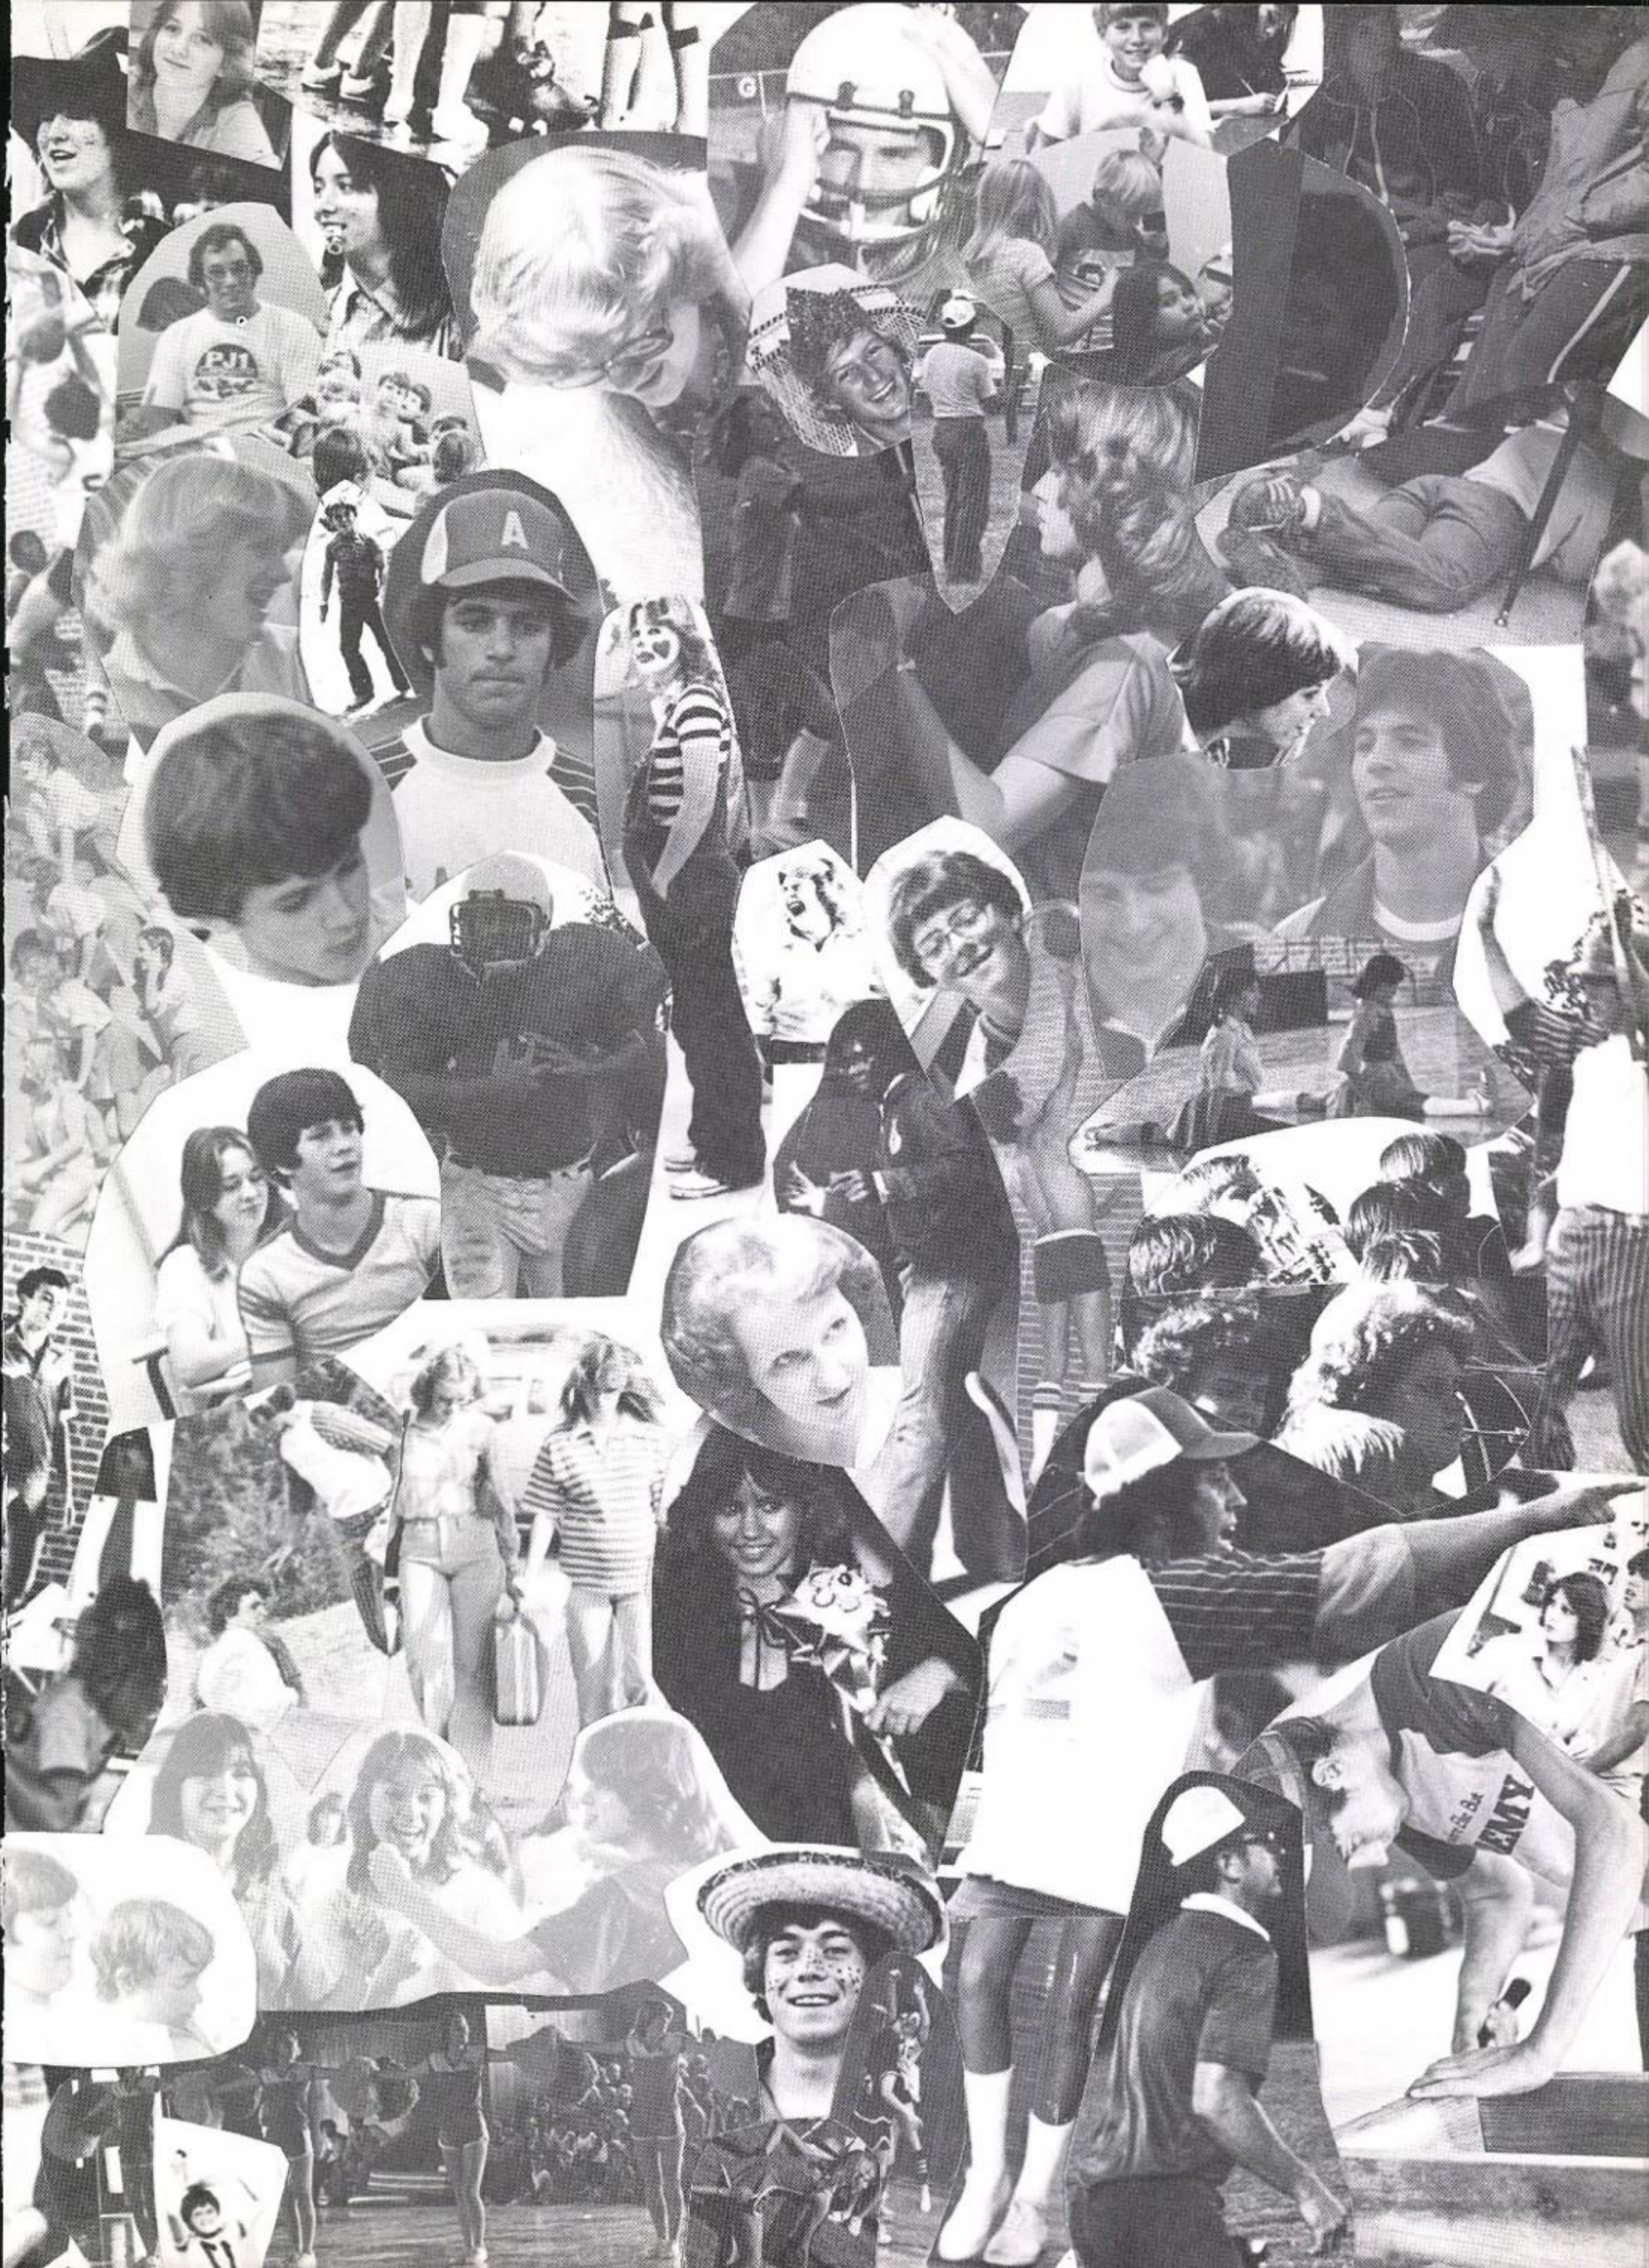

As we tally up the year we give ourselves a high score for success in academics, athletics, extracurricular activities, and personal relationships. This year marks the beginning of what will only prove to be one of many memorable years in the decade of the 80's.
